"Down By The River"

Acushnet Hopes to Acquire Historic Property By Kenneth J. Souza

The Acushnet Board of Selectmen recently revealed that the town might be poised to purchase an historic 20-acre parcel of land located on the Acushnet River. The property, which is privately-owned by the Hawes family, is located on Mill Road near the old Acushnet Sawmill, and would be of both historic and scenic value to the town.

"The Hawes family has been privately discussing selling (the property)," Selectmen Chairman Robert St. Jean said during a recent meeting. "I know a number of town boards have expressed an interest in the use of the parcel ... if we can come to an agreement with the Hawes family, we might look into the possibility of purchasing the land."

The board unanimously voted at their January 12 meeting to actively pursue the land purchase and possibly prepare an article for the upcoming Annual Town Meeting warrant to fund the acquisition. As of this week, they were still awaiting a proposal from the property owners.

"I'd like to see the town acquire the property for a lot of purposes," Selectman Peter Koczera said recently. "The Hawes family is giving the town first dibs on it ... this would give us control of the Sawmill Pond and we could restore the fish ladders (and) maybe bring back the herring."

The property in question is described as the "Mill Lot," which was a tract of land situated on both sides of the Acushnet River at the village bridge and was reserved in the original layout for a mill site, according to Franklyn Howland's A History of the Town of Acushnet. The parcel predates the incorporation of the town itself, and a deeded history can be traced back to 1707, making it one of the oldest identifiable properties both in Acushnet and what was to eventually become the United States of America.

"On the northeast corner of the river and the village bridge was one of the earliest water power enterprises in the town," wrote Mr. Howland in his 1907 history. "It is said to have been erected and in operation as early as 1707. Cotton was picked there for the cotton factory which stood a few rods up the river ... pumps for domestic wells and salt works were bored from logs, and blocks for rigging the vessels that were built in the Stetson and Bellville ship yards just below were made there."

Over the years the mill property was alternately used to manufacture wool carding (1818), cloth and candle wick (1834), and cotton through 1840, when it was purchased by Jonathan P. Lund to produce paper, wrapping, ship sheathing, building lumber, and ship timber in partnership with Charles W. Morgan of New Bedford. The business was later passed on to Mr. Lund's son, Parkman, who carried on the saw mill until 1867, when it was sold to Simeon and Jonathan C. Hawes and N. Harvey Wilbur.

Under the leadership of Hawes and Wilbur, the company became the leading box board and boat building lumber manufacturer in the area. In 1907 the partners were joined by Frederic B. Hawes (Jonathan's son) and Franklin J. Gurney, who then incorporated the business into the Acushnet Saw Mills Company.

The business thrived over the years, eventually branching out into the manufacture of cedar for shingles, white pine and hemlock for home and industrial building, and maple and other hard woods for stove and fireplace use. Sadly, the vibrant town landmark fell victim to a fire in the mid-1980's, rendering the property vacant until the present day.

Selectmen Chairman St. Jean added this week that both the Acushnet Youth Athletic Association (AYAA) and the Russell Memorial Library Trustees have expressed

On the cover: The former Acushnet Saw Mill property, located on Mill Road, has been targeted as a possible acquisition by the Town of Acushnet. The historic 20-acre parcel is being put up for sale by the Hawes family, who previously owned and operated the long-thriving business. An article may appear on this spring's Annual Town Meeting to fund the purchase. (Photo by Kenneth J. Souza).

interest in using a portion of the existing property — the latter group looking to site a new public library — and Acushnet Citizens Together Improving Our Neighborhood, Inc. (ACTION) has openly supported the land purchase.

"I haven't gotten any negative responses," Selectman St. Jean said. "But we haven't yet been given a

The board hopes to meet with the Hawes family in the near future to work out the details of the potential sale and, hopefully, bring the proposal before Town Meeting voters this spring.

As a recipient of a grant from American Radio Relay League, Old Rochester Regional Junior High School students and their advisor Mr. Andrew Ferranti, have been able to build a AB1BX vertical antenna with radials which is located on the roof of the junior high school. Using a Yaesu FT 102 and a straight key CW contacts are possible with European stations in the mornings here at school.

The members of the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School Radio Club are in the process of learning Morse code and will be able to copy 5 to 10 words per minute by the end of the school year.

Students are enjoying the learning process with the use of code practice oscillators and morse code learning tapes and are actively seeking a community partnership with a local ham who is willing to become a mentor to some of our students.

Quarterly Subscriber Complaint Form. In the report that they sent to the board, there had not been a single complaint from any resident in Mattapoisett for the fourth quarter in 1997, which included the months of October through December.

"This report is wrong," said Selectman Bernier upon the discovery that it didn't contain any resident complaints.

• SEMASS Vice-Chairman Jeff Osuch sent correspondence regarding the Clean Air Act Amendment requirements for municipal waste combustors to comply with new state regulations.

• COM/Energy sent correspondence about information of a Notice of Filing and Public Hearing regarding the Restructuring Plan filed by Cambridge Electric, Com/Electric and Canal Electric with the Department of Telecommunications and Energy.

• A letter was received regarding House Bill 4637, otherwise known as the Omnibus Managed Care Bill, notifying that it could jeopardize HMO cost savings for municipalities. The Selectmen are urged to contact their state representatives and senator to express concern. Selectman Bernier requested a copy of the bill to read.

• SouthCoast emPOWERment Secretary Joseph Slatterly advised the board that the next meeting will be held on Wednesday, February 4 at 7:30 pm at the Dartmouth Town Hall.

• Correspondence was received from Town Counsel Daniel C. Perry enclosing a copy of a settlement statement relating to the Estate of Ripley Lake Harding. The total costs for the closing were $217,076.12. Attorney Downey, who also sent a letter explaining the costs, indicated that he intends to make an immediate distribution of $100,000 to the town, with the balance to be paid shortly after the April 8 anniversary of Mr. Harding's death. The $100,000 will be donated to the library.

• Daniel Goodman sent a letter to the board requesting a discussion and review of the manner in which the Police Department has responded to his requests for their cooperation involving himself and his former wife. Mr. Goodman was present at the meeting and reiterated that he felt that Police Chief Moran's behavior was "borderlining on misconduct," and wanted the board to be aware of these issues before further discussion resumes on the

They include: Sunday, July 12 - Triathlon; Wednesday, July 15 - Strawberry Festival; Friday, July 17 - Chowder/Seafood Dinner; Saturday and Sunday, July 18 and 19 - Craft Fair.

Lastly on the agenda, Executive Secretary Carol Adams gave her report. First, she notified the board that they will meet with the Personnel Board on Thursday, February 12 at 6:30 pm.

The next discussion was regarding the senior van parking issue. Once again, the board finds itself without a place to house the van, leading them back into a discussion about potential sites.

Ms. Adams suggested that they speak to the Finance Committee about the matter, and perhaps submit an article on an upcoming Town Meeting warrant to fund the storage.

Selectman Bernier suggested that the board look into the possibility of storing the van at the Police Station. She explained that there is blacktop space for the van, and that perhaps a shed of some sort could be built to house it.

Ms. Adams said that she has been in contact with fellow Executive Secretary Ray Pickles in Marion regarding the ADA Coordinator's position. They would like to have a Tri-Town person fill the position, and the Town of Marion believes that they have a potential candidate.

Finally, news came that the Police Department is posting a new, larger sign in front of their facility.

There will not be a Selectmen's meeting next week on Tuesday, February 3, 1998. The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday, February 10.

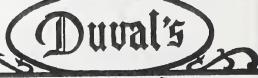

The board went into recess at 7:45 pm until their 8:00 pm appointment with Recreation Committee Chairman Marilyn Lee, who was to present the board with the proposed 1998 Bathing Beach budget.

The board would thereafter adjourn for the evening.

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

January 27, 1998 By Kenneth J. Souza

The board first met with the members of the Sippican School Building Committee at 7:00 pm to get a status report on their work to date. Chairman Wayne Mattson noted that since the committee was formed in February of 1997, they have been working to find the best way to meet the growing needs of the Marion community.

"The school population is projected to grow from the present 527 students to 700 students in ten years," Mr. Mattson said. "And then to 800 students by 2013. The present school site will accommodate 800 students with an average of 22 students per classroom."

Based on this determination, the Building Committee presented a Designer Selection Procedure to the board and a copy of the Request for Proposals (RFP) which they would like to advertise for architects to begin the school expansion/renovation project. Mr. Mattson reviewed the following timetable for the project:

- January, 1998 Advertise Request for Proposals for architect services;
- February April, 1998 Architects will be evaluated and selected;
 - April, 1998 Town Meeting will vote on architectural
 - April, 1999 Town Meeting will vote on construction
 - July, 1999 Begin construction;
 - September, 2000 Phase 1 Construction Completed.

Committee member Ben Bryant noted that Marion's student population has grown an average of 4 percent each year since the early '90's — which is a significant number when compared to the town's 2 to 2.5 percent overall population growth. "We need to ask ourselves: if we complete this addition (to the school), how long will it last us?" Mr. Bryant said. "Our initial numbers suggest it will last at least through 2013."

"The key to all this is to accurately determine the town's growth over the next few years," Selectman Winters said. "I think the committee has done a good job in projecting those numbers."

Chairman Schaefer agreed. "The one thing we don't want to happen is to come back to voters in five years and say we need another (school) addition ... or another (school) location," she said.

Ms. Schaefer was also impressed to see that the Building Committee — along with the Sippican School Committee and school administration — was attempting to maintain the student-to-teacher ratio in Marion. "It's mind-boggling to read that the expansion will include 48,000 square feet and increase the number of classrooms from 24 to 37," she said. "It's nice to see that we're still mindful of the importance of smaller classrooms."

The Board of Selectmen thanked the members of the Building Committee for their efforts and unanimously voted to adopt the Design Selection Procedures as written. Mr. Pickles noted that the RFP's will be sent to the Central Register this week and will be advertised for two consecutive weeks. The RFP's will be due March 6 at 4:00 pm and a walk-through of the school will be conducted on February 19 at 10:00 am.

The board then unanimously approved the minutes of the January 20 meeting and reviewed the following incoming correspondence for the week:

Agency that a revenue bond project has been approved for Tabor Academy to renovate and expand the school's athletic/health center and purchase new equipment. The $10.8 million project will include an ice rink, field house, exercise room, student dining room, and new health center. "They're talking about some 100 people on the job," he said.

 Notice from the Department of Environmental Management (DEM) that there is funding available under the Flood Mitigation Assistance program of Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Mr. Pickles noted that he would pass this information along to both Harbormaster George Jennings.

John Rockwell of the Circulation Committee next came before the board to discuss their recent mailing of a resident survey. This "Non-Vehicular Transportation Survey" was mailed to every household in Marion — about 2,400 in all.

"We also mailed a random sample, more scientific survey to every tenth household," Mr. Rockwell said. "In two weeks we'll have most of the surveys back ... we've already gotten 50 percent of the random samples back."

Mr. Rockwell noted that when the surveys and samples are all returned, the committee will have them professionally tabulated and the results will be made public. He added that those who do not return their surveys will receive a reminder card. "We're trying to find out what people want before we design it," he said.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 7:50 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

January 26, 1998 By Rebecca Fortin

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, January 26, 1998 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Richard D. Cutler. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes, Selectman William D. Chamberlain, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere. Executive Secretary Russell Dean was absent due to an illness.

The first order of business for the evening was the 7:05 pm appointment of Fire Chief Scott Ashworth and Rochester Environmental Park owner David Mackley. Chief Ashworth said that they appeared before the board to "put closure on the incident" of the recently-discovered ammunition, and subsequent removal of it. Chief Ashworth offered that he would "entertain any questions" that the board may have.

Chairman Cutler said that he was mostly impressed with the handling of the situation by the Rochester Environmental Park, the Fire Department, and all of the organizations, including the ATF that offered their assistance in the matter. "The internal procedures work pretty good," Chairman Cutler said, adding that his only request would be a procedure by which neighbors would be notified if such an emergency were to happen again.

REP Plant Manager David Mackley said that he understood the board's position on the possibility of an emergency drill of sorts, but assured them that at no time was there any potential danger to the surrounding homes and neighbors. "We were concerned about causing a panic," Mr. Mackley said, adding that collectively they "set up a system so that no one was in danger" by having twenty-four hour surveillance on the premises until it could be assessed. They successfully avoided any public threats of safety.

Chairman Cutler added that he would like to send "thank you" letters to all of the organizations who assisted the Town of Rochester in dismantling the potential threat.

The second appointment on the agenda was regarding a Civil War Reenactment proposal and Circus

HOUSEHUNTING TAX DEDUCTION

Under what circumstances can a home buyer deduct the cost of finding a new residence?

Usually, the expenses related to finding a new home are not deductible. However, old home are related to a new job at a workplace at least 35 miles from the taxpayer's home than his former place of employment, then the deduction of up to $3,000 is available for costs associated with acquiring the new residence and disposing of an old one.

Deductions for househunting trips, including temporary quarters, are limited to $1,500, of the $3,000, total.

Assuming the expenses are not reimbursed by the seller's employer, deductible moving expenses include costs associated with travel to a new locaif the move and the sale of the tion, transportation for household furnishings and personal effects, premove housefinding trips, temporary living expenses for up to 30 days at the new location, and various sale and purchase items, such as legal fees, real estate commissions, and title fees.

which was presented by Harry Brown and Roland Grenier.

Mr. Brown offered that the Circus, which will be held on July 5 at 1:30 and 4:30 pm, will charge $8 for advanced ticket sales and $10 at the gate. The five-ring circus will feature thirty elephants, lions, tigers, giraffes, llamas, and horses, to name a few. There will be 2,750 seats for the event under a tent that will measure 146 by 350 feet.

The Civil War Reenactment, scheduled to take place on June 13 and 14, will feature hundreds of men and women in a production sure to receive a great deal of attention. These actors "do it for the love of the reenactment" said Mr. Brown, adding that the "participants don't get paid."

The board seemed in agreement with all that was presented, but wondered if any food concessions would be available at either event, particularly the circus. Chairman Cutler also requested to see a sketch of the plans for the circus. Both the sketches and the food concession issue will be cleared up soon.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received:

- A letter from Fire Chief Ashworth to the board in recognition of the all of the organizations that assisted in Incident at the Rochester Environmental Park.
- A letter from Dog Officer Tom Medeiros to the board offering policies and procedures. They are as follows: upon receiving a dog or cat check if they are registered, if they cannot contact the owner or a new owner is not found, the animal will be euthanized. The boarding charge is $15 per day, per animal, payable to the Town of Rochester. A logbook is kept at the kennel and used by all animal control officers. Acushnet Selectmen's Meeting

A regular meeting of the Acushnet Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, January 26 at 6:00 pm by Chairman Robert J. St. Jean in the Acushnet Community Center (232 Middle Road). Also present were Selectman Everett L. Hardy Jr., Selectman Peter W. Koczera, and Executive Secretary Elaine G. Miranda.

At 6:00 pm the board met with Town Treasurer John Nunes to discuss tax titles and the steps being taken to foreclose on those property owners who owe the town back taxes. "Right now there are eleven properties which are delinquent on their tax titles," Mr. Nunes said. "I've discussed this (with an attorney) and we'll be taking the first step to start foreclosure proceedings."

Mr. Nunes noted that these eleven properties represent just some of the total 77 accounts now in tax title, ranging from 1973 through 1995, which owe the town a total of over $600,000 in back taxes. This first batch which Mr. Nunes has targeted as priority accounts represents just over $234,000 in delinquent taxes, with individual sites incurring anywhere from $147 to $71,000.

"It's a long process ... which starts with identifying the property, confirming them with the Register of Deeds, checking on mortgages," Mr. Nunes said. "If nothing is done (to settle the amount due), we then proceed to take the owners to land court."

Though Mr. Nunes has collected an estimated $72,000 in taxes this year alone, he explained that this is a long and costly procedure. It costs approximately $1,000 per account to take the owners through land court and takes anywhere from six to eight months to process. The Town Treasurer is allocated $24,000 each year to fund such actions against delinquent accounts. Mr. Nunes would like to work on the first eleven accounts and then handle the others as monies come in.

The board unanimously voted to allow Mr. Nunes to pursue whatever action is necessary against the eleven delinquent tax title accounts.

Chairman St. Jean next noted that the Golf Course Committee has reviewed two proposals submitted for management of the Acushnet Municipal Golf Course and has recommended the bid be awarded to Johnson Turf Management for $1.843 million. "Based on interviews and suggested proposals, the committee has recommended (Johnson Turf Management)," Selectman St. Jean said. "If approved, I expect the contract would be awarded in March for a three-year term."

Though the board seemed to agree with the Golf Course Committee's recommendation, Selectman Koczera said he wanted to take time to review the proposal and meet the representatives of Johnson Turf Management before awarding the bid. "I'd just like to see the face behind the voice on the phone," he said. With that, the board agreed to take this matter under advisement.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received a request for legal services from Building Inspector Leo Lyonnaise regarding the resolution of a compliance issue at 691 Main Street. The board was aware of the situation concerning a body shop business adjacent to the golf course property. They unanimously approved Mr. Lyonnaise's request for legal counsel.

Director of Finances Alan Coutinho sent a memo to the board regarding the Conservation Commission's (ConCom) recent vote to classify their secretary as a "senior clerk" and adjust her wages accordingly. The board felt they needed some clarification of this issue, especially with regard to the funding of the position. They agreed to hold this matter until their February 26 meeting to allow Selectman Hardy time to consult with the ConCom.

The Board of Public Works (BPW) and ConCom next sent memos to the board regarding the proposed discontinuance of Laura Keene Avenue. The ConCom voted at its January 14 meeting to discontinue the "paper street" portion of Laura Keene Avenue from South Main Street to the Acushnet River. The BPW, however, was concerned that this discontinuance would eliminate any potential to continue several dead end streets in the area; would remove future potential to loop existing water mains in South Orchard, Maple, William, and Union Streets; and the town would require a permanent easement for the open drainage ditch that crosses Laura Keene Avenue between Maple and William Streets.

The board agreed to wait on a response from the Planning Board regarding this matter before they took any further action.

The board next received a request from the Richard H. DiNatale Detective Agency to arrange an

PARROT FEVER

I recently purchased an Amazon parrot that was sneezing and seemed ill. My cockatiel is now sneezing and I have been fighting the flu for the last month. Could there be any connection?

Yes. Birds get psittacosis, also called "parrot fever" and "chlamydiosis." This infectious disease can be spread to people as well as to other birds. Among the signs to look for in birds are sneezing, puffed up feathers and green to yellow diarrhea. Some birds show no obvious signs. People get flu-like symptoms often with a chronic hacking cough and headaches. It is an excellent idea to have your veterinarian check newly acquired birds, or birds showing signs of illness, for parrot fever.

interview with two EMT's who responded to an emergency call at Tilcon-Capaldi on March 11, 1996. Selectman Koczera felt this matter should be reviewed by Town Counsel, and Selectman Hardy suggested that Emergency Medical Service (EMS) Director Adrienne Rivet consult with Town Counsel before responding to the request. The board unanimously voted to make this recommendation to Ms. Rivet.

Police Chief Michael Poitras next submitted a request to hire one full-time police officer to replace Charles Pelletier who is retiring from the force, effective January 29. The board unanimously voted to approve Chief Poitras' request.

The Board of Public Works (BPW) next sent a response to the board regarding their recent request to have the DPW assist with the demolition of three buildings located on the golf course property. According to a memo from BPW Chairman Kenneth Souza: "The BPW believes that the heavy equipment needed to safely raze the two larger structures would include either a crane with clamshell bucket or a crawler loader. The DPW does not have any of this equipment in inventory and therefore cannot accomplish this work."

The board was disappointed with the BPW's refusal to assist in this matter. "I'm a little upset over their refusal to demolish the buildings," Selectman Koczera said. "If we put this project out to bid, (the contractors) are going to bring the same piece of equipment we have sitting in the DPW barn. I'd like to request the BPW chairman to come in next week. A front-end loader could easily do this job ... and I think it would take all of a day's work."

The board voted to request BPW Chairman Kenneth Souza to attend next week's Selectmen's meeting to discuss this matter further. They also want to address the BPW's recent decision to require an eight-inch meter pit installation at the entrance to the golf course property. "There are other devices on the market which will serve the same purpose for less money," Selectman Koczera said.

Ms. Miranda wanted to remind everyone that the Annual Town Meeting will be held on Monday, April 27, 1998 and the deadline for submitting articles for placement on the warrant is March 9 at 3:00 pm.

At 7:00 pm the board opened a hearing on a request from Tom Fortin, manager of the Blue Lantern Cafe at 605 Main Street, to obtain a full entertainment license so that they could hire live bands at the establishment.

Chairman St. Jean noted receipt of a letter from John Howcroft, who lives about 1,000 feet from the establishment at 35 Perry Hill Road. In his letter, Mr. Howcroft said he was disturbed by "very loud music" emanating from the establishment during the summer and also was annoyed by "patrons accelerating their motors" and "screeching tires" when leaving. As such, he requested that the board either reject the petition for a live entertainment license or place restrictions on the petition to address these concerns.

Mr. Fortin noted that it was hard to believe the music was loud enough to be heard 1,000 feet away. "Since we bought the establishment, we've made some changes and we're trying to make it work," he said. "We're requesting entertainment so we can advertise it ... there's so much competition in this business, we need to find a way to increase business."

Mr. Fortin agreed to make sure that all the doors and windows were closed — especially during the summer months — to ensure that the music level did not disturb his abutting neighbors. "If I have to fix the windows so they can't be opened, I will," he said. "I'd like to at least give (live bands) a shot."

After hearing from another abutter who noted that he's had few problems with the business since Mr. Fortin took over, the board unanimously voted to extend the entertainment license for the Blue Lantern Cafe to include live bands for a six-month trial period. The license is valid for the current operating hours of Monday through Saturday, 8:00 pm to 1:00 am. Mr. Fortin will be asked to come back before the board in July for a review hearing.

At 7:35 pm the board voted to go into Executive Session to discuss pending personnel and legal matters. They would thereafter adjourn for the evening.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

Emergency SERVICE

I recently read a Letter to the Editor printed in the January 8, 1998 issue of The Wanderer in which I was named seemingly as a defendant. As the Acushnet Water Supervisor, I willingly accept constructive criticism and I am doing the best I can given the circumstances within the Acushnet Water and Sewer Department. I have never failed to discuss the problems of the water and sewer system with any who has shown an interest and asked questions.

In direct response to the question about "infiltration" in the Acushnet sewer system, the BPW and Superintendent Dick Settele have been regularly apprised of progress in the study being conducted to determine and assess the differential in metered flows of potable water being purchased by customers and the wastewater exiting the sewer system. What appears to be a seemingly simple problem to solve is actually a very complex set of circumstances that has taken roughly 20 years to reach this current situation which was so eloquently spoken of as the "mess the sewer users suffer."

Anyone who believes that these problems should already be solved because I have been on the job for six months: please accept my apologies and sympathies, for you have been misled. I made it perfectly clear at the beginning of my employment that these problems are likely to take YEARS to fully resolve. I have repeatedly stated that the focus of the infiltration/inflow problem has been somewhat misguided and is not the key element to solving the real problems, those that make it necessary to have such high sewer rates.

The report that you seek will be presented in the near future though you may not be happy with the recommendations. I will say that there is a much greater inflow rather than infiltration problem and I would be happy to elaborate on what the real problems are, should any of you be interested, please call our office at 998-0230.

As to the unwarranted comment about the salary and services being performed, you can believe whatever you choose. However, if you are thinking of past practices that have led to all the problems with the actual system hardware such as the pipes, valves, and manholes, etc., have not had any effect on the software such as the office administration, procedures, accounting, planning, budgeting, reporting, etc., you are well advised to think otherwise.

Since I began employment five months ago, I have had all I can do to just keep up with the daily fires that constantly arise. I have barely managed to keep the tactical situation from getting out of control, never mind the strategic situation, which is the only way that overall improvements will be made. So, yes on occasion, you will find me helping to stuff envelopes in order to ensure that bills go out on time, along with a multitude of tasks that I'm required to do in order to get things done.

One thing I have taken note of is the unending criticism toward the (Acushnet) BPW and DPW. To all of you who think you do service to the town's residents - especially the water and sewer customers - by the bitter criticism which includes

The Curtain House

63 Alden Road, Fairhaven - 993-2869 Open Mon.-Sat. (In the plaza across from Wendy's) innuendo, false accusations, and charges and invective commentary, you are absolutely wrong. I intend to do what I can to solve the water and sewer system problems as I perceive them and I will counteract any and all unwarranted or non-constructive criticism by responding to letters, news articles, or television comments against myself or anyone in the DPW or BPW, or against any function of the Water and Sewer Department. What appears necessary at this time is a dose of truth and engineering common sense from the DPW and BPW, and to that end I will do my part.

Finally, as to the comment about what appears to be such slow progress in our efforts. I have reviewed limited records available concerning the current conditions of the water and sewer system and other history about the town's past opportunities for genuine improvements that were not taken. As we approach the new millennium, I'm struck by a comment from one of the department men that aptly describes this situation. First, we have to update the system into the 80's before we can think about getting it into the 90's, and as for the millennium, well that is still a long way off with respect to where the Town of Acushnet is now with the water and sewer system. I hope that this situation is about to change significantly for the better.

Sincerely, David Fredette Acushnet Water/Sewer Supervisor

Mixed Media Exhibit

The galleries at the Marion Art Center will reopen for the 1998 season on Sunday, February 1. There will be a reception from 4:00 to 6:00 pm to meet the four artists featured in a Mixed Media Exhibition.

Jack Darling Jennings of South Dartmouth studied at the Boston Museum of Fine Arts, Maryland Institute of Fine Arts, and Massachusetts College of Art. He founded and ran a small gallery in Boston called "KICK." He is also a composer and performing musician and has played with many local bands. Mr. Jennings enjoys all media in the art field. His current art work is shaped by found and recyclable materials and has a whimsical approach to non-traditional subjects.

Phyllis Krueger also lives in South Dartmouth and studied at Massachusetts College of Art, Boston Museum School of Fine Arts, Boston State College, and has taken courses at UMass Dartmouth and also privately. She exhibits her sculpture and collage throughout

Beyond and back: town tackles tragedy in Sweet Hereafter

By Rob Gonsalves local@wanderer.com

■ The Sweet Hereafter. Starring Ian Holm and Sarah Polley. Directed by Atom Egoyan. Running time: 110 minutes. MPAA rating: R. At select theaters.

The Sweet Hereafter, the deservedly-acclaimed masterpiece by Atom Egoyan, could have been bad in so many ways that it's tempting to praise it for what it isn't. It involves a schoolbus accident that takes the lives of fourteen children, yet it doesn't jerk easy tears with scenes of the kids flying kites with their parents. It centers on the attempts of a lawyer to win a settlement on behalf of the grieving parents, but there's no rousing John Grisham finale in which Matt Damon tackles the corrupt bigwigs, wins justice for the parents, and sends us out hollowly satisfied.

No, the satisfaction of The Sweet Hereafter runs deeper. Working from Russell Banks' fine, painful novel, Egoyan presents extreme misery and despair — parents struggling to find meaning in their children's deaths — and suggests that there may be no meaning. "There's no such thing as an accident," insists the lawyer, Mitchell Stephens (Ian Holm), but some of the parents know better — for instance, Billy Ansel (Bruce Greenwood), who had already lost his wife and has now lost his twin children. Billy has no illusions, and that's Egoyan's great theme: the cruelty of illusion — faith as delusion, as a buffer against the truth.

Egoyan, like some of his fellow Canadian filmmakers (David Cronenberg, Denys Arcand), takes his time and keeps a respectful distance. His previous film, Exotica, was an intricate and interlocking puzzle that only clicked together near the end. The Sweet Hereafter is more linear, but not much more: Egoyan has become so assured a storyteller that he can juxtapose three time frames (before the accident, the aftermath, and two years later) as if shuffling a deck of cards. The sequences comment and reflect on each other, wedded by the metaphor of the Pied Piper—Robert Browning's poem, read by Nicole (Sarah Burnell Polley), one of the accident's few survivors, a moody girl now in a wheelchair.

Mitchell Stephens keeps visiting the broken parents, demanding that they help him help them. He wants to get to the bottom of the tragedy; somebody along the line — the makers of the bus or the guard rail on the road — must have been negligent. (His real nemesis, we feel, is the big maker Himself; there's a touch of Ahab in this ambulance-chaser.) Mitchell has his own "dead child": his daughter Zoe, a runaway drug addict who badgers him over the phone for money. For him, this crusade is about wresting control out of chaos, and Ian Holm gives us a wrenching portrait of a self-contained man cracking at the seams. It's a performance of great, bitter force: Mitchell is driven to save the children of the world, and the fact that his own child is lost doesn't make him a hypocrite — or a hero, either.

Mitchell puts his case in the lap of Nicole, played by the 18-year-old Polley (an actress to watch) with touching gravity. Nicole's anguish, we learn, goes far beyond what happened on the bus, and we see that for many in the town, such as Billy Ansel, the accident just smothered pain that was already there. You can only endure so much pain before you shut off and go numb. The Sweet Hereafter is about a town that has become comfortably numb, in contrast to Mitchell Stephens, a raw nerve raging against the injustice of life.

Somewhere in the middle is Nicole, who knows the truth but also knows it can't help anybody. Numb denial and rage may be understandable responses to tragedy, Egoyan says, but how useful are they? The adults can rage and deny all they want; their children will still be just as dead.

This Week's Horoscope

by Linda Black

Aries (March 21-April 19). You'll make either a good or bad impression on an older person. Use your experience to choose the best course.

Taurus (April 20-May 20). Push yourself to start new projects. There'll be tests. Consider an older person who has something to teach you.

Gemini (May 21-June 21). Get serious about money so travel can become an option. Study technology and apply it.

Cancer (June 22-July 22). Let your partner call the shots. He or she is in a stronger position. Study ways to manage other people's money.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22). Stick to your agenda and complete as much as possible. You may have a chance to make money.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Romance interferes with work. Spend time with your sweetheart. Your work needs even more of your attention. Plan something you both enjoy.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Do what your sweetheart wants. You'll get back more than you dreamed possible. Get together for lunch. You won't have time for dinner.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Friends have information you need. Do the research. You'll need it. You should have time for love. These days should be especially romantic.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). Ask for the money and you just might get it. Do the work. You'll be awesome. Use what you've gained to give yourself a career advantage.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You're strong and smart. An old friend helps you plan your next move. Financial matters have you stumped. You need to spend more than you've got.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Finish something you promised a loved one so you can do what you want. Your imagination will be awesome, so act on it.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20). Friends' advice prompts you to take action. You're under pressure. Finish overdue work. An older person's request is the only irritation.

If You're Having a Birthday This Week: Keep most of what you know private this year and you'll succeed in both business and romance. You're awesome this year. You have powers even you don't understand.

ST. JUDE'S NOVENA

May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the hopeless, pray for us. Say this prayer 9 times a day. By the 8th day your prayer will be answered. Say it for 9 days. It has never been known to fail. Publication must be promised. Thank You, St. Jude. C.S.

Every week we hide the aardvark in The Wanderer. For those of you not familiar with this practice, here's how it works. Each week we hide a little aardvark (shown above, actual size) somewhere in the newspaper (not counting the aardvark above). If you find him (or even if you don't) you can send in a postcard with your name, address, and phone number to the address below to enter our Aardvark Drawing! This week we are giving away an "I found the Aardvark" lapel pin. Send entries to: Aardvark, P.O.. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739.

SMART Program at ORRJHS

Old Rochester Regional Junior High School Principal Gary Maestas has announced a new Saturday Morning Alternative Remediation Tutoring (SMART) Program. This pilot program was developed to help eighth grade students with multiple failures who are atrisk for promotion to the ninth grade. Previously, there has not been a program to meet the needs of these students. The closest program is FINO (Failure Is Not an Option), which was designed to serve students who lack organizational study skills and not students who are oppositional to their school work.

The objective of the SMART Program is to provide students who are academically at-risk with the opportunity to obtain extensive instruction in study skills, tutoring in their weak subjects, as well as motivational and self-esteem building activities. Teachers who have students in the program will provide the tutor with an outline to be covered in the current term. Teachers may also provide extra-credit assignments for the term. Students will be required to participate in a group counseling session that will enable them to form a support group of peers to help them succeed in their classes.

This program is funded by the After-School Program Grant from the Massachusetts Department of Education. If you have any questions, please contact Gary Maestas or John McCarthy at ORR Junior High School (758-4928).

Playgroups Forming in District

Children birth to age five are invited to participate in a community-based playgroup being organized by the Early Childhood Advisory Council of the Old Rochester Regional School District. Parents will be asked to stay and participate in planned activities with their child. These activities will be organized by a trained playgroup leader. It is the council's hope that a playgroup can be offered in each town in the district.

Training of new leaders will start in February and it is hoped that the first playgroup will meet in March. If you think you might be interested in participating, please contact Lisa Durr at 748-9528 or the Early Childhood Office at 748-1863. The effort is being funded by a Community Partnership Grant.
